African Humanities Series

The African Humanities Series is the product of a partnership between the African Humanities Program (AHP) of the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) and academic publishers NISC (Pty) Ltd.

The African Humanities Series covers topics in African histories, languages, literatures, philosophies, politics and cultures. It aims to publish works of the highest quality that will foreground the best research being done by emerging scholars on the continent. Submissions are solicited from Fellows of the AHP, which is administered by the ACLS and supported financially by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.
